Victoria is certified as a specialist in appellate law by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization – a distinction earned by only 1% of her California peers. She handles appeals and writes in both state and federal courts in a wide range of practice areas, including business disputes, employment litigation, personal injury cases, and family law matters. She also has substantial experience with the laws governing public entities. In addition to her practice in appellate courts, Victoria provides support to litigation attorneys, including brief-writing and consulting during trial.

Before joining Niddrie | Addams | Fuller | Singh LLP, Victoria practiced appellate law at Higgs Fletcher & Mack, LLP. Earlier in her career, she practiced civil litigation at Post Kirby Noonan & Sweat, LLP. During law school, she served as a judicial extern at the California Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, Division One.

At her current firm, Victoria enjoys the freedom to devote her best effort to every case. For each client, she crafts compelling writings, engaging oral advocacy, and cost-effective case strategies.
